Look close, and if you are not able
To see four metals on the label,
Be sure the flask or box is spurious,
And filled with stuff to life nightness,
Instead of Lyon's dost of pulse—
The first of which all insects kills,
Whierats and mice expire in haste
As soon as tony the second taste?
Remember Lyon's Powder quick
Slays roach or bed bug, ant or tick,
But to the human stomach still
Is harmless though you are a gill.
